5. Eligibility and Conflict of Interest Disclosure

In order to ensure that ARB members are impartial, the law puts a number of limits on who can serve as ARB members. Your answers to these questions will determine whether you are legally eligible to serve on the ARB.

For the purposes of these questions:

- A "local government" is a governmental entity that levies property taxes, such as a county, city, school district, junior college, hospital district, municipal utility district, or other special district.
- "Appraisal district" refers to the Rusk County Appraisal District (RCAD) and to any other appraisal district in the state of Texas.
- "Governing body" means the group of officials that oversee a local government, such as a city council, county commissioners' court, school board of trustees, or board of directors.
- "Officer" means holding an elective or appointive office for a local government, such as governing body member, chief executive officer, judge, tax assessor, business manager, superintendent, etc., and includes an election judge, alternate election judge, and election clerk who serve in conducting a general election.
- "Part-time employee" includes a substitute teacher.
- "Contract" means an agreement of any sort.
- "Substantial interest" means combined ownership by you and your spouse of at least 10% of the voting stock or shares of a business entity, or that you or your spouse is a partner, limited partner, or officer of the business entity.

Check "Yes" or "No". If you are not sure, write "not sure".

Selection

Members of the appraisal review board are appointed by the Administrative Law Judge. The Administrative Law Judge will appoint the ARB Chairperson and Secretary.

Terms

Members shall serve two-year, staggered terms. An individual may serve three consecutive terms, then after one year off the ARB may be reappointed and may serve another three consecutive terms.

Compensation

Appraisal Review Board members shall receive a per diem as provided by the annual appraisal district budget.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Appraisal Review Board is responsible by statute for the review of appraisal records and the hearing and determination of taxpayer protests and taxing entity challenges.

The chief appraiser shall delegate appraisal office staff to provide clerical assistance to the Appraisal Review Board.

Upon submission of the appraisal records by the Chief Appraiser, the Appraisal Review Board, as part of its annual review, shall review and certify the values of those properties owned by employees of the district.

The Appraisal Review Board may adopt rules of procedure.

Removal

A member of the Appraisal Review Board may be removed by the District's Board of Directors or by the District Judge. The grounds for dismissal are:
